JUST-IN-TIME TRAINING, START ANYTIME

What's an Annual Training Calendar? A training calendar is a structured schedule designed to deepen the capacity of participants, such as board members and non-profit managers. It acts as a strategic tool to help members manage their responsibilities more effectively. Key features include:

- Structured Learning: Offers a planned approach for continuous skill development.
- Efficiency: Enables boards to work smarter by providing a clear learning path.
- Timeless Topics: Includes subjects that remain relevant throughout the year.
- Flexibility: Allows participants to join and progress at their own pace.
- Continuous Improvement: Members can repeat the cycle annually to reinforce knowledge and stay informed about new developments.

BOARD'S DEPTH—WITHOUT SINKING YOUR BUDGET.

Table Talk for Boards is a practical, high-impact monthly training series designed to meet real boards where they are. For just $1200/year (or monthly payments available through Affirm), your board gains access to twelve 90-minute virtual sessions that offer real-time guidance, proven tools and a supportive professional community of practitioners.

Board Capacity Building Should be Accessible.

If your board is part of a broader network or collaborates with an umbrella organization, you may qualify for deeply discounted enrollment ($600/year per board). And for under-resourced boards—particularly those serving historically under-served communities—we offer an Access Fund option, reducing the annual fee to $240 (an 80% scholarship).
